Flanders Irks McCarthy By Taking Trip

Wisconsin Senator Demands He Return For Censure Hearing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15 A-Sen McCarthy (R-Wis), in a move which could delay the start of Senate hearings scheduled for Aug. 30, demanded today that Sen. Flanders (R-VT) return from Europe to repeat under oath his censure charges against McCarthy.

Flanders, who recited to the Senate 33 counts on which he said McCarthy's conduct tended to bring the Senate into disrepute, flew to the British Isles last week for a three-week vacation. An aide said he would return "anytime he's needed."

McCarthy called this trip an evidence of "complete lack of courage" on Flanders' part, adding:

Panama Problem A Complicated One

Great Britain, after prolonged negotiations with Egypt, has given up her control of the Suez Canal. For almost a year the United States has been engaged in negotiations with Panama with respect to the Panama Canal, and agreement is reported to be near. In many respects the two situations are not comparable.

Three main points are under consideration in the negotiations. The 1903 treaty with Panama called for payment of $250,000 annual "rent" for the canal zone. Treaty revision in 1936 raised the figure to $430,000. Panama wants it increased again, to match 1954 price levels. She also accuses the United States of violating the treaty provision that Panamanian and United States labor shall have equality of opportunity and treatment.

Another point urged by Panama is the harm done to native enterprise by non-profit competition from post exchanges. A third related point is that Panama wants the Canal Zone to provide a better market for her sugar, coffee, beef, rice, and other products. Among other things, Panama wants provisions for more economic stability, so that contraction of Canal Zone activities, such as occurred after World War II ended, will not send the Panamanian economy into a disastrous slump.

These are all sound points but, valid as Panama's main complaints are, they involve complications. A flat pay scale for native and imported employes alike is impractical, since incentives must be provided to persuade Americans to leave home and live in the tropics and regimented zone. The problem is to find a formula which convinces Panamanians that there is no unfair discrimination. Other problems are not

Shades Of Hitler

Dr. Otto John, who spent some time in the United States last spring, devoting himself to a study of our counter-espionage activities, must now be regarded as part of the Kremlin apparatus.

On the air, over "Deutschlandsender," the East German radio station, he said:

"Dr. Adenauer's one-sided link-up with American policy, and the remilitarization and revival of National Socialism connected therewith, are bound to lead to a new war which would not only bring yet greater and more unimaginable sufferings upon the German people, but would also prejudice the further existence of our people as a Nation. I say this fully conscious of my responsibility, on the strength of my own experience and knowledge of truly decisive factors which are not unknown to the leading personalities in Bonn with whom I have been working.

"Warnings alone are no longer sufficient; action is needed . . . I have followed the voice of my conscience, and I am convinced that I have chosen the right course." It is the ghost of Hitler that continues to ride the world. Whereas the vast Communist world-wide apparatus is a fact, visible to the eye and ear, the revival of Nazism is not evident except perhaps to a degree in West Germany; yet Hitler left so horrifying a memory of inhuman brutality behind him that the mere thought of the return of the Nazi sends shivers down the spines of millions of

This has undoubtedly become the greatest advantage to Communist operatives throughout the world, particularly in the United States. The fear of the emergence of an American Hitler is real, particularly as the disclosure of Communist espionage in this country stimulates a mass emotionalism, which while it has not yet expressed itself in any positive manner, exists nevertheless.

The genuine fear of Joe McCarthy is that his unquestionable ability to dramatize the anti-Communist issue might throw him into the role of a mobilizer of the anti-Communist forces into a pro-McCarthy political party which could give him, at least in some stages, the role of a Hitler, Herbert Brownell Jr., when he accuses McCarthy of seeking to establish a one-man government by Congressional committee authority over Executive agencies is, in my opinion. seeking to arouse a national resistance to McCarthy as an incipient Hitler.

McCarthy and his friends have recognized this trend for a year. They have been particularly conscious that certain organizations in New York have finally reached the conclusion that they cannot risk McCarthy becoming so great a figure that he could not be handled, at some future date, by ordinary political processes. McCarthy has not been accused, in public, of being an anti-Semite because such a charge is so untrue as to be readily disproven, particularly by the many Jews associated with McCarthy. But the secretive smear campaign to this effect is constant and general and is widely believed. And it must be said that this campaign represents neither fear of nor objection to Joe McCarthy; it is the ghost of Hitler that rides the times. It is fear of Hitler; it is the memory of Hitler.

The danger in this is that it works favorably to Communists. They keep the concept of Hitlerism alive; they identify every anti-Communist with this concept. Martin Dies was called a Fascist; Joe McCarthy is being identified as a prospective Hitler. It is a pattern that is worldwide. Chiang Kai-shek, for instance, is being described to the world as a dictator.

Until the death of Stalin, the United States was allied to that dictator for many years. A distinction could be made between a good dictator and a bad one: Stalin was a good dictator worthy of our aid; Franco was an evil dictator worthy of our excoriation. Since the death of Stalin, all dictators are described as evil. and to smear a man all that need be said against him is that he aspires to be a Hitler. At that point, he is supposed to drop dead politically.

Why do we play into the hands of the Communists? The answer is simple. They know how to say what we want to believe. They make a pattern of our fears and they use that pattern to our disadvantage. Both the Otto Case and the McCarthy situation need to be viewed from this standpoint.

For the story of Dr. John goes back to the World War II days when he was one of the top agents of the German Gestapo, yet at the same time pretended to the British that he was working for them.

Dr. John has always convinced Westerners of his loyalty by the fact that his brother was involved in the plot to blow up Hitler in 1944. Yet it now develops that it was Dr. John who tipped off Hitler just before the plot and caused it to fail. In other words, he was so loyal to the Gestapo that he sold out his own brother.

Two days after the Hitler plot failed. John left Germany for Madrid. This made him acceptable in the eyes of the British. ### McCarthy May Have Bad Time With Probe Chairman Senators. And it may be, of course, WASHINGTON The battle over Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy could reach the showdown stage much more rapidly than is generally believed.

For one thing, Sen. Charles Potter, Republican of Michigan, is quite likely to join the three Democratic members of the Mundt Committee in signing a majority report on the Army-McCarthy row severely critical of McCarthy.

During the hearings. Potter reportedly reached the firm conclusion that McCarthy was guilty at the very least of weakly co: doning Roy Cohn's improprieties. Potter is now under heavy pressure to sign a whitewash report. But so far, at least, he is bravely sticking to his guns.

The likelihood of a strong majority report from the Mundt Committee lends a special interest to the work of the new six-man committee which is to inquire once again into the behavior of the Wisconsin Senator. This committee has been widely regarded as a device for shoving the whole issue under a rug, at least until after the election. Instead, a strong report by this new committee, following on the Mundt Committee majority report, could bring the whole Mc-Carthy issue to a final showdown. And this could happen even before the elections, if the committee does its work rapidly and well.

The idea of any committee handling the McCarthy issue rapidly and well may seem outlandish. At every previous such inquiry Mc-Carthy has succeeded, to put it bluntly, in making monkeys out of the inquiring Senators. Consider what happened to the chairman of some of the previous committees which have inquired into the Wisconsin Senator's behavic. The chairman of the first such committee, former Sen. Most of his colleagues believe that some similar unpleasant fate awaits the chairman of the new committee, Sen. Arthur Vivian Watkins, Republican, of Utah. Sen. Watkins, a smallish, rather wispy man, thinks not. He is, indeed, calmly confident that he can keep McCarthy in his place.

He says, quietly but firmly, that no funny business f any sort will be permitted. Only relevant evidence wil be heard. No speeches

However, when the Russians took Berlin they seized the Gestapo records. The American Army got the General Staff records and those of the Foreign Office. But the Russians got the Gestapo records. which made it possible for them to put the finger on various Germans.

Among these was Dr. John. And knowing his past associations with the Gestapo, the Russians were in a position to blackmail him. For exposure of his past meant imprisonment, perhaps death.

Furthermore, Dr. John was a man who always needed money. He was a high-liver. The Russians supplied the money, and Dr. John Long ago went to work for them.

The U. S. Army got highly suspicious of Dr. John back in the days when Gen. Lucius Clay was U. S. Commander in Germany, and nearly fired him. The man who chiefly suspected John was Gen. Clarence Huebner, However, the Central Intelligence Agency championed him, gave him a great deal of confidential information, even arranged for him to meet CIA Director Allen Dulles.

Finally, when John visited the United States recently, Army suspicions led to putting a counterintelligence agent on his trail, and this continued after he returned to Germany. The counterintelligence agent was Wolfgang Hoeffer, a German-born, naturalized American who had gone to school with John.

Hoeffer finally told John that he was being shadowed, and this was why Hoeffer committed suicide one day after John fled to East Berlin. It was also one reason why John fled.

The Russians pulled him out at this particular time, first because John wanted to leave; second because they figured his desertion now might lead to the downfall of the Adenauer Government, which in turn would upset the rearming

Farm Outlook

Here is a summary of what economists think the new farm bill will do to farm economy around the nation. In general they expect that the staple crop which will take the worst beating will be wheat.

Cotton is expected to stay around 90 per cent of parity in the near future; corn also will not be affected drastically, should remain at about 85 to 87 per cent of parity.

Wheat, on the other hand, is expected to go down to the bottom of the new price support bill, namely to 821/2 per cent of parity. Wheat farmers will take their worst beating, however, on wheat acreage cuts. This is bound to have a drastic effect upon the economy of the big wheat states such as Montana and North Dakota.

Already wheat acreage in Montana has been cut 24 per cent under the wheat allotment program, and will be cut another 14 per cent next year. This means a total cut of around 40 per cent in Montana and will take a big slice out of the state's prosperity.

Economists fear that as a result of the new farm bill the farm implement manufacturers may be in for more trouble. Their production went down about 50 per cent last year, but recently has been on the way up again.

Another economic factor noted in the farm belt has been a shift to savings account. In brief, farmers, whether justified or not, are tightening their belts, getting ready for hard times.

The New Look In Taxes

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass - The new tax law will help everybody. It is the first complete revision of all the Federal tax laws which has taken place for many years.

One of the first things recognized is that we all should get easier tax treatment for misfortune. This includes everything from sickness and accident to business losses. Not only are allowances made for this year's hard luck, but we are aiso allowed to charge these losses against a greater number of previous years' gain. Limited childcare expenses for low-income parents are exempted. You may deduct medical expenses above 3 per cent of income, instead of 5 per cent as at present. But, you must remember that from now on you may only deduct sums spent for drugs and medicine above 1 per cent of your income. Mothers, or widowers, who must work to support children under 12 or other dependents, and any woman whose husband is incapacitated, or working couples with combined family income of less than $4,500 may deduct up to $600 spent for child care. If you miss work because of an illness or an injury, you are entitled to tax exemption on payments made to you by your employer up to $100 a week. The exemption does not apply in the first seven days of an illness, unless you are hospitalized.

Dividends Retirement Money

If you are a stockholder, you won't have to pay any tax at all on the first $50 of income in dividends. Furthermore, you can take 4 per cent of any dividend income above $50 and deduct that from your tax payment. Although the double taxation of dividends is wrong and dishonest. I do not feel so badly that the President's request was not fully granted, especially in the case of young people. Older people who cannot work and are wholly dependent upon dividends should have total relief, but not everyone. In fact, the discrimination should perhaps be by ages, rather than by the total dividends received, except when they are reinvested in the steck of the same company. You won't have the basic 20 per cent tax rate on the first $1,200 of re- need to file an advance estimate get the benefit even though you're under 65. If you have a child who is under 19 or is in college and who has a job which pays him more than $600 a year, you can continue to list him as a dependent with a $600 exemption on your return if you pay half of his support. If your husband or wife dies, you may continue for two years to get the full benefit of income splitting by a

Help For Businessmen

If you are a businessman or farmer, you may use the new double declining-balance method of quick depreciation on a plant or piece of equipment. This means that in the first years of life, you can write off twice the amount for depreciation now allowed; thus you can concentrate most of the write-off in the early years of use of the item. A corporation may get other reliefs, including: More liberal treatment for research expenditures; greater freedom to set aside surpluses; the right to offset a loss against profits of two prior years instead of one as now; greatly expanded depletion allowances for mining companies; a cut-off date of April 1, 1955, for the 52 per cent corporation tax rate, when it automatically drops to 47 per cent. If you are a farmer putting a lot of money into soil rebuilding, you may deduct these outlays up to 25 per cent of your gross business income. Installment Buying

To help business, installment buying is being encouraged by allowing you to deduct the carrying charges on all such purchases. To help churches, hospitals, and colleges, we can deduct, as taxexempt income, 30 per-cent of our contributions to such, instead of the former 20 per cent. The main purpose of these new tax laws is to help struggling parents and struggling businessmen. Big business and the rich are benefited very

The date when we must file our returns is extended from March 15 to April 15. Furthermore, married couples filing joint return, and who have a family annual income of less than $10,000 (most of it subject to withholding) no longer of their tax. This simplifies filing

Panama Problem A Complicated One

Great Britain, after prolonged negotiations with Egypt, has given up her control of the Suez Canal. For almost a year the United States has been engaged in negotiations with Panama with respect to the Panama Canal, and agreement is reported to be near. In many respects the two situations are not comparable.

Three main points are under consideration in the negotiations. The 1903 treaty with Panama called for payment of $250,000 annual "rent" for the canal zone. Treaty revision in 1936 raised the figure to $430,000. Panama wants it increased again, to match 1954 price levels. She also accuses the United States of violating the treaty provision that Panamanian and United States labor shall have equality of opportunity and treatment.

Another point urged by Panama is the harm done to native enterprise by non-profit competition from post exchanges. A third related point is that Panama wants the Canal Zone to provide a better market for her sugar, coffee, beef, rice, and other products. Among other things, Panama wants provisions for more economic stability, so that contraction of Canal Zone activities, such as occurred after World War II ended, will not send the Panamanian economy into a disastrous slump.

These are all sound points but, valid as Panama's main complaints are, they involve complications. A flat pay scale for native and imported employes alike is impractical, since incentives must be provided to persuade Americans to leave home and live in the tropics and regimented zone. The problem is to find a formula which convinces Panamanians that there is no unfair discrimination. Other problems are not more simple.

Shades Of Hitler

Dr. Otto John, who spent some time in the United States last spring, devoting himself to a study of our counter-espionage activities, must now be regarded as part of the Kremlin apparatus.

On the air, over "Deutschlandsender," the East German radio station, he said:

"Dr. Adenauer's one-sided link-up with American policy, and the remilitarization and revival of National Socialism connected therewith, are bound to lead to a new war which would not only bring yet greater and more unimaginable sufferings upon the German people, but would also prejudice the further existence of our people as a Nation. I say this fully conscious of my responsibility, on the strength of my own experience and knowledge of truly decisive factors which are not unknown to the leading personalities in Bonn with whom I have been working.

"Warnings alone are no longer sufficient; action is needed . . . I have followed the voice of my conscience, and I am convinced that I have chosen the right course."

It is the ghost of Hitler that continues to ride the world. Whereas the vast Communist world-wide apparatus is a fact, visible to the eye and ear, the revival of Nazism is not evident except perhaps to a degree in West Germany; yet Hitler left so horrifying a memory of inhuman brutality behind him that the mere thought of the return of the Nazi sends shivers down the spines of millions of

This has undoubtedly become the greatest advantage to Communist operatives throughout the world, particularly in the United States. The fear of the emergence of an American Hitler is real, particularly as the disclosure of Communist espionage in this country stimulates a mass emotionalism, which while it has not yet expressed itself in any positive manner, exists nevertheless.

The genuine fear of Joe McCarthy is that his unquestionable ability to dramatize the anti-Communist issue might throw him into the role of a mobilizer of the anti-Communist forces into a pro-McCarthy political party which could give him, at least in some stages, the role of a Hitler, Herbert Brownell Jr., when he accuses McCarthy of seeking to establish a one-man government by Congressional committee authority over Executive agencies is, in my opinion, seeking to arouse a national resistance to McCarthy as an incipient Hitler.

At every previous such inquiry Mc-Carthy has succeeded, to put it bluntly, in making monkeys out of the inquiring Senators. Consider what happened to the chairman of some of the previous committees which have inquired into the Wisconsin Senator's behavic. The chairman of the first such committee, former Sen. Millard Tyd .gs' was driven almost to distraction by McCarthy's genius for distorting the issues. Another chairman, Sen. Guy Gilletter, was roundly insulted, while his successor, Sen. Thomas Hennings Jr. was loftily disregarded. The chairman of the most chalk.

Economists fear that as a result of the new farm bill the farm implement manufacturers may be in for more trouble. Their production went down about 50 per cent last year, but recently has been on the way up again.

Another economic factor noted fortunate business is that Dr. John's in the farm belt has been a shift ers, whether justified or not, are ready for hard times.

could rebid two suits with a single call? The truth is that you really can do it. There are a number of situations in which that is possible. The most frequently widow in Pennsylvania whose two available one comes after you have at least five cards in each and may possibly hold still one more card in the first one.

North made a very bad bid when he called 5-Diamonds. South had clearly shown that he possessed five cards of each red suit, when he rebid the lower of his two holdings. There are only extremely rare cases when a player will bid the higher suit first, next the lower one, if the higher one is shorter. That is done by a fine player only when his hand is of such doubtful marginal strength that he is striving to make the choice by his partner as cheap as possible. This could not be the case here, as South's second bid, 3-Diamonds, was a jump showing North's proper action, over the C 4-Diamonds call, was 4-Hearts, since he had as many cards in that suit as in the other. He is a relative newcomer to the game, though, and did not understand just what such bidding portended. Indeed he explained: "I raised the diamonds because you rebid them, and did not rebid the hearts." Now he knows how to handle the problem next time it arises.

This particular declarer managed to make the 5-Diamonds, but it did him no good, since the deal was in a tournament and his score had to be compared with all those who played at 4-Hearts and made the contract for 20 points more. Actually, he got a cold bottom score on the deal. Top score for North and South came where North bid 3-No Trumps on his second turn, and South improperly left it in. Fortunately, North took one trick in spades, five in diamonds and two each in the other suits to edge out the others with 130 for tricks as against 120 and 100 respectively.

Maryland Democrats waited today for a circuit court decision which could determine who their candidate for governor will be in November. It was expected to come soon, possibly before the end of the day.
